Very important – information on ethnic origin

To comply with the general duty to eliminate unlawful discrimination and to promote racial equality, the NUJ is committed to establishing and implementing equal opportunities policies in agreement with employers. As a trade union, it is also committed not to disadvantage any racial group in its delivery of service to members.

The NUJ needs the information below to be able to assist claims with employers concerning access to employment, training, job security and promotion. The information will also assist the union to ensure equal access to union structures, benefits and facilities. This includes access to and participation in the work of the union's Black Members Council whose duties include monitoring the impact of union policies on racial equality, monitoring the progress of relevant legislation and campaigning against racism in the media.

By completing and returning the information below, you will assist the union in ensuring that equal opportunity for employment and advancement is available for everyone. To assist the monitoring of this policy, please provide details of your ethnic origin. All information kept will be strictly confidential.

Direct Debit Guarantee

This Guarantee is offered by all Banks and Building Societies that take part in the Direct Debit Scheme. The efficiency and security of the Scheme is monitored and protected by your own Bank or Building Society.

If the amounts to be paid or the payment dates change, the NUJ will notify you at least ten working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed.

If an error is made by the NUJ or your Bank or Building Society, you are guaranteed a full and immediate refund from your branch of the amount paid.

You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by writing to your Bank or Building Society. Please also send a copy of your letter to the NUJ.

Who should join the NUJ?

Journalists including photographers, creative artists working editorially in newspapers, magazines, books, broadcasting, public relations and information, and electronic media; or as advertising and fashion photographers, advertising copywriters and editorial computer systems workers.

If you have any questions about completing this form or your eligibility for membership, please contact the membership department on 020 7278 7916 or email info@nuj.org.uk putting 'Membership Enquiry' into the subject field of your email.

How should I pay?

We strongly recommend that you complete the direct debit form above. If you decide to pay by cheque you should enclose the first quarter's contribution with your application.

What happens next?

Your application will be acknowledged within 10 days of receipt. It will then be referred to your local branch. On election, you will be sent an application form for a National Press Card and full details of the union's benefits and rules.

How much will it cost?

That depends on the sector in which you work and how much you earn. There are three grades, listed below. Choose the sector that best describes the work you do

You do not have to pay more than 1% of your gross taxable income in NUJ contributions or 0.5% if your income is less than £13,600 per year, (subject to a minimum of one third of the Grade 1 rate).

Members in New Media are graded according to their employer.

Grade 1: £12.84 per month

Provincial newspapers, books, magazines outside London, independent local radio and for those employed outside the UK and the Irish Republic.

Grade 2: £16.27 per month

Press and public relations, magazines, freelancers and advertising copywriters.

Grade 3: £22.31 per month

National newspapers, news agencies and broadcasting.

If you think that you are eligible for reduced contributions, please complete the declaration on page 2 of this form and enclose evidence of your income.
