NUJ
NATIONAL UNION OF JOURNALISTS

Working in or studying PR & communications?

JOIN THE NUJ TODAY

Working in this industry can feel isolating, but when you're in the NUJ, you know that your union is there to offer support and advice if and when needed.

- As well as reporters, editors, and photographers, the NUJ represents people in PR and communications
- We'll advise and represent you on workplace issues, ensuring your voice is heard and rights are protected
- Together we can challenge poor practices, excessive workloads, and unfair treatment

NUJ

Seven reasons to join the NUJ today

- Networking: connect with members in PR, comms, reporters, editors, photographers etc.
- Pay: we'll help fight for better pay, terms and conditions for you and your colleagues
- End bullying: the NUJ fights against bullying behaviour and confronts bullies
- Ethical working: get support and expert advice if you are asked to do anything unethical
- Legal advice: the NUJ provides free legal advice and support on work issues where needed
- H&S: we work to keep members safe, including from work-related stress due to heavy workloads
- Equality: we fight for diversity, equality and inclusion in the sector
