Temporary Membership of the National Union of Journalists

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your recent enquiry concerning temporary membership of the NUJ.

Temporary membership of the NUJ is intended for individuals seeking to establish, or re-establish, themselves in freelance journalism. Although you do not need to earn 100% of your income from journalism to qualify for temporary membership, you must not have a full-time occupation other than journalism.

The fee for temporary membership is £60 for the first year, rising to £84 in the second year and £102 in the third year. You must enclose a cheque with your application. If for some reason your membership is not approved a full refund will be given. You may renew this membership for a further two years at the above rates.

Once your application has been processed by Head Office, it will be forwarded to the local branch for consideration. It is very important that if you are then invited to the branch meeting at which your application is to be considered, that you make every effort to attend. This will ensure that there is no unnecessary delay in electing you to membership.

On election to membership, you will be sent details about applying for the NUJ Press card via the website, also advising you to submit some evidence of your recent work.

If you wish to apply for temporary membership, please complete the form on the back and return it to the NUJ Membership Department, Headland House, 72 Acton Street, London, WC1X 9NB.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any further assistance.

Yours sincerely
